OVERSEAS STUDENTS

Bank charges must be paid in the country of origin so that the full amount invoiced is received into our Bank account.

PAYMENTS AND BURSARIES

There is a 10% sibling bursary in the boarding and tuition fees for second and subsequent children who are at School together. A full term's notice must be given or a full term's fees in lieu of notice must be paid for a pupil leaving the School. Fees are payable in full on or before the first day of each term. There is a services bursary of 10% and a clergy bursary of 50%. All bursaries and remissions are subject to an annual review by Governors and are dependent upon the satisfactory behaviour and academic achievement of the pupil and the fee account for the pupil being paid prior to the commencement of each term.

ADVANCE FEES SCHEME

The School operates an Advance Fees Scheme, please contact the Bursar for details.
